However, that person will have an opportunity to provide factual information about the proposed conflict and/or matter regarding the potential conflict. Also, the Board may request that an interested party be available to answer questions. Board options include, but are not limited to:
    - a. Allowing the proposed matter to go forward upon finding it in the best interests of SFVAFRE;

An interested director will not be counted for purposes of determining whether a quorum is present, or for purposes of determining what constitutes a majority vote of directors in attendance
3. Minutes. The minutes of the Board meeting will reflect that the conflict disclosure was made to the Board, the vote taken and, when applicable, the abstention from voting and participation by any interested party. Whenever possible, the minutes should frame the decision in such a way that it provides guidance for consideration of future conflict of interest situations.

The Board will inform the person of the allegation and will allow the person an opportunity to explain the alleged failure to disclose.
